"JUNIOR!"

Junior recognised Dave's tone of voice. Putting his bass down, he trotted over to the computer, where a red-faced Dave was glaring at the screen. There was an image of Junior as a lap dancer, wearing nothing but a pair of sparkly briefs and about to sit on Dave's lap.

"What the fuck is THIS?"

"A Photoshop I made" Junior said innocently.

Dave scowled. "Very funny! Don't do shit like that again".

Junior blushed. "I won't Dave. I'm sorry".

He turned and walked towards the door. Then he stopped and giggled.

"Next time, I'll Photoshop you as the dancer!"
